Prayer for the month:

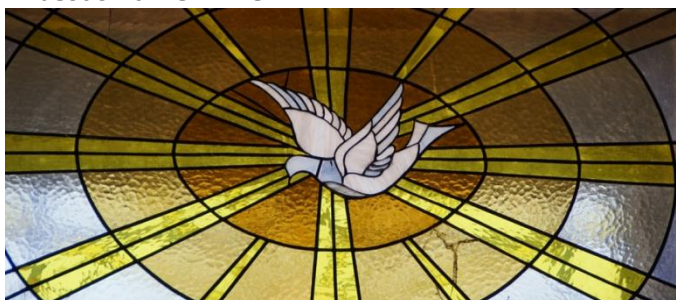

God whose very breath gives us life, allow your Holy Spirit to blow freely through our lives.

May we feel your mighty winds clearing away our reluctance to change, and our ambivalence
towards others, leaving only the full knowledge that we are yours.

We rejoice to be part of your amazing creation.
May the winds and flames of Pentecost remind us
of all that you created us to be.

When your people wandered in the desert, you longed for a time when all your people would be prophets. Pour your Spirit on us, this day that we may boldly proclaim your message of love and peace.

In Jesus name. Amen

Cream Teas at St. Margaret's Worthing

As with last year, this event was also supported by The Cream Tea Society and Rodda's from Cornwall who generously donated the jars of Strawberry Jam & pots of Cream. Having counted the cups at the end, a steady flow of 56 visitors came to Worthing to celebrate this glorious afternoon. This was slightly fewer than in previous years although generous supporters raised a total of £333, thank you all for your support.
